Chapter 1 by Joseph Turner

Jacob woke up in a hospital bed with all types of wires and IVs attached to him. In confusion, he sat up. He saw his mother glance at him and jump up in excitement. "He made it!" she yelled. He looked to the other side of him to see his father smiling with joy. Still in confusion, he tried to remember what happened. But all he could remember were the bright lights growing bigger until he blacked out. He drifted off to sleep still trying to figure out what happened to him.
